

THE SCALOFRINI
CARNIVAL SHOW

QUESTIONS FOR THE AUDIENCE

Hey there! If you're reading this, it means you're getting ready for The Scalofrini Carnival Show. Yay! Welcome! By answering these questions, you can learn more about the show. You can listen to and read the lyrics of the songs on our website.

1. At the theatre:

How do you feel when entering a theater?

How do you feel when the lights go out just before the show starts?

2. Carnival:

Have you dressed up or are you going to dress up?

What as? Describe your costume, colors, details...

The concert is set in the New Orleans Carnival. This carnival has a special name, do you know what it is?

3. Let me introduce myself

In the song 'Let me Introduce myself,' the band takes a journey through different places around the world. Do you remember which ones?

In every place around the world, there's a favorite carnival tradition. Do you remember each one?

4. The world is upside down.

What does 'The world is upside down' mean?

Can you think of funny or silly things that might happen when the world is upside down?

5. Who's behind the curtain?

In the song 'Who's Behind the Curtain,' the band talks about different characters and costumes. Can you remember which ones they are?

